25th Sunday in Ordinary Time September 18, 2022

A REFLECTION ON TODAY'S GOSPEL:

Today's Gospel sounds puzzling to contemporary readers, but it can be made less so by considering the economic system which stands behind the parable. A steward is dismissed because he is squandering his master's property. He is called dishonest because he is not serving the interests of the rich man, his employer. In response the steward, in an attempt to ensure favor for himself among the rich man's debtors, brokers repayment of the rich man's loans by foregoing the interest and fees that had been levied to line the steward's pockets. It is this action, in which the steward puts aside his greed and takes the longer perspective in order to enhance his security, which is commended by the rich man.

The passage concludes with three morals for the listeners. The first exhorts the listener to be prudent about the use of wealth. Like the steward in the parable, those who would follow Jesus must put transitory affairs in proper perspective. Christians should handle the affairs of temporal life with an eye toward eternal life.

The second concerns trustworthiness. Those who can be trusted in small things can also be trusted in great things. If Christians handle money and other passing things responsibly, then they can also be trusted with the affairs of the Kingdom of God.

Finally, Jesus tells his listeners that no one can serve two masters simultaneously. God must be put ahead of money.

GRIEF PROGRAM at Holy Trinity:

"Grief as a Journey, Our Walk to Emmaus":

In response to several requests, the Archdiocese of Edmonton has developed a program, "Grief as a Journey, Our Walk to Emmaus", for those experiencing the loss of a loved one. In his introductory letter to the program, Archbishop Smith states, "Our pastoral work always includes comforting the sorrowful". It is in this spirit that Holy Trinity parish is offering this eight week program, Tuesday evenings, beginning Tuesday, October 4 to Tuesday, November 22 from 7:15 —9:00 pm.

To sign up or for more information, please contact Bonnie at the Parish office.

"ADOREMUS & CREDO":

Adoremus ("Let us Adore") is held at St. Joseph Basilica from 7:00 – 8:30 pm on the first Saturday of every month beginning on Oct. 1 (Nov. 5, Dec. 3, Jan. 7, Feb. 4, Mar. 4, Apr. 1, May 6, June 3). Join other young adults for an evening of Eucharistic Adoration, music, reconciliation, and prayer.

Credo ("I Believe") will be from 7:00– 9:00 pm at Newman Theological College held monthly on Thursdays beginning Oct. 13 (Nov. 17, Dec. 15, Jan 19, Feb. 16, Mar. 16, Apr. 13, May 11). Join other young adults and dive into the mysteries of our faith! This cultural apologetics series will focus on a different topic each month.

A social and light refreshments will follow. All are welcome!

REFUGEE BAGS:

Thank you everyone who donated items for the refugee bags. As usual, we are so thankful for your generosity.

Once again, the Ministry of Pastoral Care is being offered to our fellow parishioners, who are unable to join us in the celebration of the Holy Eucharist.
