

Holy Trinity Parish Community Call to Serve

Do you have a calling or desire to use your unique strengths and interests at our parish to help our next generation of children and youth? Are you wondering, "What can I do to help out?" You can make a difference in the next generation by becoming a ministry leader or teacher for one of our programs.

You do not have to be a biblical scholar in order to lead or teach courses. All you need is to have a deep love for Jesus and a desire to share His love with children and youth who desperately need to hear that message.

Not ready to teach? Here are some questions to consider:

Am I a people person?

Do I enjoy working with children or young people?

Am I good at explaining things?

Am I a detail-oriented person?

Am I able to see the big picture?

Am I a problem-solver?

Am I very 'hands-on'?

Can I fix things?

Am I good at creating things and decorating?

Am I good at helping behind the scenes to make things happen or fill the 'gaps'?

Do I have a way with words?

Can I sing or play an instrument?

Find your Calling!

We are all part of one family here at Holy Trinity and each of us has a calling and a place where we are needed. If you answered "yes" to any of the above questions, please take some time to pray and discern your calling based on your unique strengths, interests and charisms. There are many opportunities to serve. These include, but are not limited to:

- ✓ Teaching sacramental preparation courses to small and larger groups (baptism, first reconciliation, first communion, confirmation, marriage prep, RCIA, RCIT, or RCIA)
 - ✓ Running a small faith study group
