Jesus is the vine—
 meaning that we are in communion with Him—
 the giver of joy, and peace.

We are the branches—
 meaning that we live in Jesus.

How might it feel to be part of the vine?
 Not just to see the vineyard from afar
 Or even pluck the clusters, press the wine,
 But to be grafted in, to feel the stir
 Of inward sap that rises from our root,
 Himself deep planted in the ground of Love,

Jesus is The Vine.
We are the branches.

To feel a leaf unfold a tender shoot,
 As tendrils curled unfurl, as branches give
 A little to the swelling of the grape,
 In gradual perfection, round and full,
 To bear within oneself the joy and hope
 Of God's good vintage, till it's ripe and whole.
 What might it mean to bide and to abide
 In such rich love as makes the poor heart glad?

SATURDAY,
MAY 4th

Just as the branches must be connected to the vine before they can produce fruit, you and I must stay connected to Jesus to produce the good fruit that God expects of us.

If we keep our life connected to Jesus, we will grow.
Our life will produce beautiful leaves and delicious fruit.

Come and see this film and be empowered for Life!

This historic overturning of Roe v. Wade in the United States has emboldened the pro-life movement the world over. Life seems to be winning. But could it ever "win" in a country like Canada? Roe Canada: The True North in a Post-Roe World follows two Canadian women working intently towards a similar triumph in their country.

SYNOD PART I: THE FACE OF THE SYNODAL CHURCH

4. People in Poverty, Protagonists of the Church's Journey:

Proposals:

n) The Church's social doctrine is a too little-known resource. This needs to be addressed. Local churches are invited not only to make its contents better known but to foster its reception through practices that put its inspiration into action.

p) As part of the rethinking of diaconal ministry, the Church should promote a stronger orientation towards service to those who are poor.

q) Church teaching, liturgy, and practice must more explicitly and carefully integrate the biblical and theological foundations of integral ecology.

Please note all quotes are taken from the XVI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops: A Synodal Church in Mission Synthesis Report.
